Desiderata

G

o placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexation to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideal; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself.
Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.
Take kindly the counsel of the year, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fear are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have the right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful.
Strive to be happy.

Found in old St. Paul's church, Baltimore.

Senior Class History - 72

Day by day, from September 1969, June 1972, we've lived and experienced together life's phases - our friends, our unfriends and our student leaders.

As sophomores, Joe Terranova led our class as president. He was assisted by David Nero as vice-president, Donna Lind as secretary, and Bela Serafin as treasurer. During our Junior year, Jim Hoesslerman served as president, aided by Kurt Raim, vice-president. Again to avoid male domination in the administration of class affairs, we elected Beth Conklin, secretary, and Dawn Chapman, treasurer, to present the necessary feminine view.

Because of their efforts, we had a successful Junior year. In our final year, we elected Wayne Marino president, Mike Neevi vice-president, Sue Comfort and Sandy Gordon secretaries, and Marcia Len treasurer.

They enabled us to make our Senior year most memorable and productive.

We've not only profited through our student leaders, but also through our class advisors. Mr. Pawlawski advised our class as sophomores; Miss Brill assumed the position for both our Junior and Senior years, attempting among other things to teach us the importance of being a good loser and a deserving winner. Although we lost the Junior-Senior Game to the class of 1971, we still take pride in our unified effort and the fact that the victory was gained by a mere two points. But, when Lancaster-Dewey Weekend arrived, our class rallied, and we were undefeated in class competition.

Throughout our time here, we've set our stamp firmly on the face of our school, and that will remain forever, sealed with year 1972. We've finally come through the course of time... we've occupied our now vacant place, the place that will never be occupied by us again.

As students of Lancaster Central High School, all we have left are our remembrances of the place - the names, the faces, the events. But we now move to a new place: now we are children of the universe.

In the year 2525, if we are still alive, if L. E. S. can still survive, we may find:

David Allen as a fairy godfather

Sandy Anger as a professional kicker for the L.A. Rams

Debbie Arceze as hall monitor at Lancaster Junior High

Marlin Bales as a chief cook and bottle washer at Four Knot

Marlene Bauer with a dozen kids (they're cheaper by the dozen)

Bonnie Beverly as a bed pan handler

Doug Black as an aardvark trainer

Phil Bologna building the first ski resort on the moon

Don Boyce as governor of New York State

Barb Ciszewski writing a book on how to appear dumb and innocent

Debbie Cline as a frat house cleaning lady

Nickie Criel being adored like Ruth Buzzi

Janice Dalfonso becoming another Jungle Jane Tree

Priscilla Danner as an official kizblaza inspector

Bila Dicken giving it to her patients in the end

Cerry DiFranco still trying to grow taller

Donna Dorobiala as a Carmelite nun

Rob Eicheldinger signed on with Captain Crunch

Don Elzer as a migrant worker at Unilree

Rich Fallacaro running a rooming house for lost females

Steve Fesla as Prime Minister of Canada

Mike Fischer collecting all of Lancaster's garbage

Diane Harsberg as the official decorator of the Taj Mahal

Dave Hryg diving for sponges

Iran Seier as a girl's phys-ed teacher

Mike Hoerke as a fashion manager in Allentown

Keith Grimm wrapped around Wendy Collings' finger

Ed Guindon as the president of the United States

Bonnie Gunthorpe in a insane asylum

Sandy Hagen at home collecting unemployment checks

Mathu Haniford as the first women president

Donna Harris working as a medical secretary in a small hospital

Roy Harrel working on a cucumber farm

Jane Hartman as the leader of Woman's Lib.

Dianne Harrell as a frustrated musical scientist

Joanna Hasling as a nightwatchman at the L.M.C.A.

Mathu Helenbrook as a dental assistant in Neuro-surgery

Jane Hess married to Rod Stewart

Bruce Houseman furnishing wall-to-wall-cave carpeting

Sharon Huval married to Dave Bohlen

... and in the year 3535, everything we think, do, and say, is in regards to what we are today:

Debbie Huff studying the habits of Mr. Marinelli
Sam Hoie, Uncle Sam's best friend
Janet Hamuz, the official flagpole sitter at the U.N.
Margaret Joseph, mouse-trap perfecter Ceregg Madukil, watching Mr. Hamien writing on his blackboard Mark Kelly, still single and raising his kids the same way
Mark Mline as the Muslim Minister in Spanish Harlem
Bob Mooppen, the greatest know-nothing of all times Walt Mucwicz, the first Polish lawyer in Jerusalem
Sue Muryla, a chicken plucker Sharon Ruznik, a psychiatrist at L. E. S.
Debbie Laneq, a Helician nun
Lynn Leigian, the ping-pong champion of the world
Mary-Lo Marano, male killer
Joanne Marlina, a moon maiden with green cheese fever Dawn McBride, Mr. McLearn's cereal factory manager Sandy Minnick, a burn in Moronville Dennis Moskiller, a mauseleda worker Ralf Nohl, the new cookie woman
Sue Paolella, the originator of the all-pro Wiffleball League
Mike Neece, co-owner of Joe LaVoli's Spaghelli Benders
Rick Belz, the director of sports at L. E. S.
Debbie Bieszala, a halfback at Notre Dame Collette Burpura, a soap opera nut Mark Baw, an underwater demolition expert in the Navy Danna Powell, on a Chick and Froggy t.v. commercial Vanda Bacer, body repairer
Dora Maykowski, the flying nun Joe Schuman, Mrs. Markle's assistant in guidance Mary Stutman, the wife of a baker with lots of dough Jim Smolherman, known as Evil Knievel the second Doug Carbox, a Maytag repairman
Bob Warmuz, head of the Habonza bean industry Caru Wery, a polish cleaning lady Lal Wiend, known as Dustmap on Commande Com Show Barb Wick, in a roller derby

... but in the year of 1972, it seems our class has lived and grew to become what it is today. Now it's time for graduation day.....

JANET BOHN '71

LAST year was our first one. The time was 70-71. We did some work, we goofed around. Togetherness was our main sound. We made mistakes, and some were bad. But think of all the fun we had. We studied; did our classroom work. Got hollered at - called "Dumb" & "Jerk". We made new friends, and even foes. It happens - that's the way it goes. We learned a lot in our first year. Through hardship, love and many a tear. And now we're back to try once more - Cause we're the CLASS OF '74!
